

Exercise: Finding Value in Workplace Conflict

Identify constructive outcomes from workplace conflict.

Instructions:

1. Think of a recent team conflict. Briefly describe the situation and the main issues.

2. List two positive outcomes that could result from the conflict, such as improved communication or innovative solutions.

3. Outline one strategy to manage similar conflicts in the future, focusing on open communication or early issue identification.